

OU 4 Sooner NOT Later;
We're in Overtime at Tar Creek

Contest Entry Form

Name _____ Grade _____ Age _____
School _____ Teacher _____ Town _____

A buy-out in Picher/Cardin and Hockerville will continue to move people away from environmental, health and subsidence risks in the Tar Creek Superfund Site, SOONER NOT LATER. "What would you say about this?"

The EPA calls the operable unit plan for the removal of chat piles, "OU 4." Do it Sooner not Later. We're already in "OverTime" at Tar Creek.

You are encourage to share your thoughts and vision on the above two topics.

Or

Choose from the following 2 topics:

- How I protect myself from Being Lead Poisoned.
- How I could protect myself from a Cave-In.

Elementary School -Design a Poster (8 ½" x 11"). Poster can have a slogan on it.
Or Photo with title attached, essay or story.

Middle School - Short essay, poem, photo with title, poster (8 ½" x 1)
Or Power Point presentation on disk or CD 20 slides or less or another art piece.

High School -100 word essay, poem, photo or poster (8 ½" x 11")
Or multi-media presentation on disk or CD/DVD. Limit to 20 slides or 3 minutes.

Certificates given for best posters, essays, poems and media productions.

By filling out this entry form, you give consent to the LEAD Agency, Inc. to duplicate your words and artwork, to help your environment and your health and the health and safety of others.

SUMMER ENTRIES DUE: July 31, 2008 by 4pm
FALL ENTRIES DUE: September 10, 2008 by 4pm

Mail Entries To: LEAD Agency 2205 E. Steve Owens, Miami, OK. 74354
Or E-mail Entries To: rjim@neok.com (this applies only to essays and poems.)

If you have any questions or want to obtain an entry form, please contact Rebecca Jim at the LEAD Agency, Inc. at (918) 542-9399 or e-mail rjim@neok.com.